Discovering Croatia - Istria

Lions District 126 - Croatia

24th International Lions Youth Camp

Our Youth Exchange Camp is held in Istria, Croatia.

Istria County is the westernmost county of Croatia. It's the largest peninsula in the Adriatic Sea, formerly called Histria. A combination of natural beauties, rich history, and cultural heritage, the Istrian peninsula was known to the Romans as the "terra magica".

Central Istria is one of the rare Mediterranean regions adorned with the quality of unspoiled natural landscapes and rich heritage. Numerous coves and hillocks connect and divide many magic-like settlements, medieval towns creating almost unreal scenery.

The area's largest city is Pula, situated at the southern tip of the Istrian peninsula, located in a protected bay. Known for its mild climate and tame, beautiful sea, Pula also has a long tradition of winemaking, fishing, and shipbuilding. If you visit Pula, you will hear whispers about a story of mythical Argonauts, Romans, Venetians, Franks, and the time of the Austrian and Hungarian Empire when it was an important war port.

It is also home to many ancient Roman buildings, including the well-preserved, magnificent amphitheatre ARENA. One of the six largest Roman amphitheatres in the world.
